

Expand Massachusetts Stories - Advancing Equity Track 2023

Massachusetts Foundation for the Humanities

Advancing Equity Track Eligibility

You are completing an LOI for the Expand Massachusetts Stories - Advancing Equity Track.

What is the Advancing Equity Track?

The Advancing Equity Track is a non-competitive review and approval process that includes cohort workshops and application development support with Mass Humanities staff and additional advisors. Up to 15 applicants whose projects are led by people from historically excluded communities, and whose organizations meet additional criteria will be selected to participate in the track.

To be eligible for the Advancing Equity Track projects must: have leadership roles for people of color or other communities historically excluded from humanities leadership, and meet 2 of the 4 following criteria.

- The applicant organization has an annual operating budget of $300,000 or less.
- The applicant organization has 2 or fewer full time equivalent staff.
- The applicant organization has never received a grant from Mass Humanities.
- The applicant organization is based in and supports communities of color.

Note: Projects that are not eligible for the Advancing Equity Track, or are not selected for the Advancing Equity Track, are still welcome to apply for the Expand Massachusetts Stories - Open Track. Applications for the Open Track start March 20, 2023.

Answer the questions below to determine your organization's eligibility for the Advancing Equity Track.

Has the organization had a grant from us before?

Annual Operating Expenses

Enter the annual operating expenses most recently reported on your IRS 990 or in your most recently completed fiscal year. If you file a 990N, enter your cash expenses for fiscal year 2022. If your organization is fiscally sponsored, enter the expense of your program only, not including expenses of your fiscal sponsor's other operations.

Character Limit: 20

Current Staffing Level

How many Full Time Equivalent (FTE) employees does your organization currently have?

To calculate the FTE, take the total number of paid hours worked weekly by your staff and divide it by 40 (40 hours is considered full-time for this application). For example, if your organization has a director who works 40 hours a week and two part-time program managers who each work 20 hours a week (40+20+20) your FTE would be 2. Round your answer to the nearest whole number.

Character Limit: 10

Community Served

Are your programs primarily designed to serve any of the following communities? To primarily serve is to chiefly or mainly serve this community before others. Note: We recognize that many communities identify across these categories or do not fit neatly into them. Please check no more than four categories.

Choices

Seniors with limited access or mobility
 Rural Communities with limited access to humanities institutions and programming
 LGBTQIA Communities
 Indigenous Communities
 Black or African American Communities
 Latinx Communities
 Asian, Asian American, Pacific Islander, or South East Asian Communities
 Immigrants and/or Refugees
 Members of Low-Income Communities and Families
 Veterans
 People who are or have been incarcerated
 People without housing
 People with disabilities
 People living with addiction or mental illness.
 Other communities vulnerable to persistent inequality (please note in your answers below)
 No, it does not primarily serve any of the communities listed.

Inquiry form

How Mass Humanities Uses this Letter of Inquiry (LOI) Form

The answers you write in this form will help Mass Humanities decide whether your project idea is a good fit for the Expand Massachusetts Stories - Advancing Equity Track application process.

Some of the questions we ask here are the same as the questions on the full application. At this stage of your project planning, you may not be able to answer every question fully. That is ok.

Do what you can. If you are selected for the Advancing Equity Track, you will develop your answers.

The Advancing Equity Track selection committee will review your answers in this form for eligibility, alignment with the initiative, and likelihood of completing a successful full application.
