

A portrait of Frederick Douglass, an African American abolitionist, with a full white beard and curly hair, wearing a dark suit and a white shirt with a dark cravat. The portrait is set against a yellow background.

Reading Frederick Douglass Together

#RFDT26

Join us for a public reading of “What to the Slave is the Fourth of July?”

Learn more about the Reading Frederick Douglass Together statewide collaboration at masshumanities.org.

